

Michele Mohar, M.Ed.

Michele Mohar is a director at Virginia Center for Montessori Studies in Richmond, VA, which provides AMS Montessori certification at the Infant & Toddler and Early Childhood level. Michele has worked with both children and adults for over 25 years in a wide range of educational settings. She began her journey as an educator working with children with learning differences at the elementary and middle school level. While raising her own children, she shifted her focus to Montessori education and has worked for over 20 years with children between 18 months and 6 years of age. Michele holds a master's degree in Special Education from Old Dominion University, and a bachelor's degree in Journalism and Fine Art from Indiana University. She has earned both an Infant & Toddler and Early Childhood AMS Montessori Credentials. Currently, Michele spends most of her time working with adults earning their Montessori certification and consulting with Montessori schools in Virginia.
